L & N BLOCK I.P. ESTATE: VIKAS BHAWAN, NEW DELHI

F.1(55)/CE/ESCIMS/2012-13/465-70

Dated : 05/8/2013

ORDER

This Department has earlier communicated vide order No.F.1(40)/CE/ESCIMS/2012-12/789 to 802 dated 17/06/2013 that Point of Sale (POS) application will be mandatory for selling the stock from 1st July 2013. The date was extended further till 15th July 2013. From 15th July 2013 onwards no stock was supposed to be sold without scanning at Point of Sale (PoS).

Requisite User Training on ESCIMS POS has been conducted in April and subsequently in July to ensure relevant users are able to use the system as per the requirement. It is expected that the PoS installation and configuration is complete at vend and vends are complying with the department's order.

However, scanning of bottles on which 2D Barcode is pasted is a mandatory exercise but for handling scanning during peak hours (7 pm to 9 pm) scanning of cases can be used to achieve scanning of each bottle in an interim period. However, any unsold stock at the end of the day will have to be returned to the system. Above arrangement of case scanning is not applicable for Cheaper/Economy liquor category. This arrangement has been made on experiment^{al} basis and shall be reviewed time to time.

Non compliance of the aforesaid directions shall be viewed very seriously by the department and necessary penal action as per Delhi Excise Act, 2009 and Rules framed there under shall be initiated which may include stopping of T.Ps and even suspension/cancellation of the License.
